
Default Question Block

Abstract Title

Presenting Author/Resident or Fellow

Reviewer (Your) Name

Block 1

Scientific Merit & Relevance - Is the problem (topic area) original/important/relevant to the clinical domain? Is/are the aim(s) or hypothesis of the study clearly described?

- Very Poor
- Poor
- Fair
- Good
- Excellent

The Approach - Is the study design appropriate for the stated research question(s) and aims; Are the methods/methodological approach clearly described and appropriate? What is the overall quality of the study methods employed?

- Very Poor
- Poor

- Fair
- Good
- Excellent

Statistical Analysis and Findings - Proper statistical analysis utilized (statistical methods; power, significance, effect size); Are the key findings described? How confident is the reviewer in the strength or trustworthiness of the findings and/or conclusions presented?

- Very Poor
- Poor
- Fair
- Good
- Excellent

Significance - How important are the research findings? How and to what extent are the findings likely to influence clinical or research practice, policy? Direction for future research?

- Very Poor
- Poor
- Fair
- Good
- Excellent

Block 2

Recommend for Poster

- Yes
- No

Recommend for Oral Presentation

- Yes
- No

Overall Rating

- Very Poor
- Poor
- Fair
- Good
- Excellent

Reviewer Comments