

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name: John James Lammie, M.D.
Colonel,
US Army Medical Corps

Present Position:

Director of Medical Education/Designated Institutional Official JAN 2017 – Present
Womack Army Medical Center
Fort Bragg, NC 28310

Tele: 910-643-1982

E-mail: john.j.lammie.mil@mail.mil

Education:

Informal fellowship in Orthopaedics 1993 – 1994
Midlands Orthopaedics, PA, Columbia, SC

Université Laval AUG 1990
Québec, QC Canada
French for Non-Francophones (No degree awarded)

Columbia Biblical Seminary and Graduate School AUG 1989
Columbia, SC
Certificate in Bible

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill JUN 1987
Chapel Hill, NC
Family Practice Faculty Development Fellowship

U.S. Army Institute of Research AUG 1978
Washington, DC
Armed Forces Tropical Medicine Course

U.S. Army Aeromedical Center OCT 1979
Fort Rucker, AL
Flight Surgeon Training (Distinguished Graduate)

Eisenhower Army Medical Center 1976 – 1979
Fort Gordon, GA
Family Practice Residency

Jefferson Medical College of Thomas Jefferson University 1972 – 1976
Philadelphia, PA
M.D.

Pennsylvania State University 1971 – 1974
University Park, PA
B.S., Science,
(Combined 5-year BS/MD program with Jefferson Medical College)

Military Professional Experience:

Director of Medical Education/Designated Institutional Official JAN 2017 – Present
Womack Army Medical Center
Fort Bragg, NC 28310

Responsibilities: Direct and oversee accreditation, quality, and resourcing for ACGME accredited and allied health postgraduate training programs. Family Medicine faculty member with call, inpatient service and precepting opportunities. Hospital lead for leadership development, director of Medical Leadership Development Seminar Series, lead facilitator for Arbinger Outward Mindset Transformation. Chairman, Ethics Committee. Director for GME Futures Expansion and Medical Center Transformation Campaign.

Assistant Deputy Commander for Clinical Services – Medical NOV 2014 – DEC 2016
Director of Medical Education/Designated Institutional Official
Womack Army Medical Center
Fort Bragg, NC 28310

Responsibilities: Assistant Chief Medical Officer for Medical Services. In addition to Director of Medical Education role, lead and coach service line and department chiefs for Primary Care (largest outpatient primary care health system in Department of Defense with 8 clinics and 120,000 enrolled beneficiaries), Internal Medicine and subspecialties, Pediatrics, Pain Management, and Traumatic Brain Injury. Serve as advisor to CEO and CMO. Participate in executive rounds. Co-sponsor multidisciplinary rounds. Lead for clinical disaster response. Base lead for Advanced Trauma Life Support training.

Director of Medical Education/Designated Institutional Official JUL 2013 – NOV 2014
Womack Army Medical Center
Fort Bragg, NC 28310

Director, Health Care Delivery, MEDCOM G3/5/7 AUG 2011 – JUL 2013
(Previously Director, Health Policy and Services)
Office of the Surgeon General
Arlington, VA 22042

Responsibilities: Functionally equivalent to Chief Medical Officer, U.S. Army Medical Command Health System. Direct clinical policy for the Army Surgeon General, overseeing Primary Care, Behavioral Health, Musculoskeletal and Rehabilitation, Pain Management, and Traumatic Brain Injury service lines. Co-developer of implementation and policy guidance for Patient Centered Medical Home, Integrated Pain Management, and Concussion Care. Key leader in Medical Command functional reorganization of clinical and operations staff section. Coach Chief Medical Officers for all Army Medicine facilities. Lead Army Medicine response on rabies review and background checks for health personnel having contact with children. Lead Department of Defense Scientific Review Panel for ergogenic supplement use following deaths of several Soldiers.

Deputy Chief of Staff for Clinical Operations
Northern Regional Medical Command
Washington, DC 20307

JUN 2009 – AUG 2011

Responsibilities: Functionally Chief Medical Officer for Northern Regional Medical Command Health System. Direct clinical policy for the Commander (CEO) of the Northern Regional Medical Command, a health system of three hospitals and seven major clinics serving a population of more than 250,000 over seven states. Coach for Chief Medical Officers at health system facilities. Patient Centered Medical Home transformation lead for the health system. Clinical operations leadership co-lead for the region for clinical business operations to train regional personnel in effective business of medicine workshops. Key leader in coordinating regional interests during massive Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC) actions involving National Capital Area, especially Walter Reed Army Medical Center and Fort Belvoir Community Hospital.

Chief, Department of Family Medicine
Womack Army Medical Center
Ft Bragg, NC 28310

DEC 2007 – JUN 2009

Responsibilities: Direct Division of Family Medicine (largest outpatient primary care health system in Department of Defense with 8 clinics and 120,000 enrolled beneficiaries), to include Army's largest Family Medicine Program. Lead for patient-centered continuity care transformation.

Deputy Commander for Clinical Services
28th Combat Support Hospital
Ibn Sina Hospital,
Baghdad, Iraq

FEB 2007 – NOV 2007

Responsibilities: Serve as Chief Medical Officer and Deputy Commander for Clinical Services at Ibn Sina Hospital with the 28th Combat Support Hospital during the coalition Surge in Iraq. Direct and coach the staff at one of the busiest trauma hospitals in the world. Serve as liaison to Iraqi Government medical personnel for direct medical care. Direct trauma response and evacuation of patients to maintain ready posture to receive injured military and civilian personnel.

Director of Primary Care
Womack Army Medical Center
Ft Bragg, NC 28310

JAN 2006 – FEB 2007

Responsibilities: Direct Department of Family Medicine, Emergency Department, Department of Pediatrics, and Department of Deployment Health for Womack Army Medical Center.

Family Physician/Field Surgeon
550th Area Support Medical Company
Division Support Brigade
3rd Infantry Division
Taji, Iraq

JAN 2005 – JAN 2006

Responsibilities: Senior physician in Level 1 combat aid station and primary care clinic at large military base in Iraq. Coordinate base mass casualty response with other incident command personnel. Sponsor groundbreaking combat medic training with Iraqi Army counterparts. Provide training and primary care in civil affairs missions with surrounding Iraqi communities.

Family Practice Residency Faculty
Womack Army Medical Center
Family Practice Residency Program
Ft Bragg, NC 28310

SEPT 2003 – DEC 2004

Responsibilities: Full time Family Medicine full spectrum faculty. Intern class sponsor. Faculty Teacher of the Year.

Division Surgeon (US Army Reserve)
108th Division (IT)
Charlotte, NC

OCT 1999 – SEPT 2003

Responsibilities: US Army Reserve assignment. Responsible for medical policy and fitness and disability evaluation of large training division. Maintain and present health statistics. Direct medical training.

Acting Commander
3274th U.S. Army Hospital (US Army Reserve)
Fort Bragg, NC

SEPT 1998 – MAY 1999

Responsibilities: US Army Reserve assignment. Serve as CEO for "backfill" Reserve Hospital to support the mission of Womack Army Medical Center. Direct medical training and leadership development.

Commander (Lieutenant Colonel)
7226th Medical Support Unit (U.S. Army Reserve)
Fort Jackson, SC

MAY 1996 – SEPT 1998

Responsibilities: US Army Reserve assignment. Serve as Commander for Installation Support Medical Unit with mission to provide pre and post deployment assessments of Soldiers to support large military installations' ability to launch and re-integrate military personnel.

United States Army Medical Corps (Active Component)

JUL 1976 – AUG 1988

Family Practice Residency Director
Eisenhower Army Medical Center
Fort Gordon, GA

JUN 1985 – AUG 1988

Responsibilities: Lead large 36 resident Family Practice residency and serve as Assistant Chief for Department of Family Practice. Develop curriculum and clinical rotations for residents, ensure all educational and institutional resources for program accreditation. Complete Faculty Development fellowship.

Family Practice Teaching Faculty
DeWitt Army Hospital
Fort Belvoir, VA

AUG 1982 – MAY 1985

Responsibilities: Serve as teaching faculty for large Army Family Practice Residency. Serve as Clinic Director for model Residency Family Practice clinic. Serve as program chairman for annual scientific meeting for Uniformed Services Academy of Family Physicians.

Clinic Director, Quality Assurance Chairman
DeWitt Army Hospital
Fort Belvoir, VA

1983 – 1985

Division (FWD) Surgeon and Flight Surgeon
2d Armor Division (FWD)
Garlstedt, Germany

JUL 1980 – JUL 1982

Responsibilities: Serve as command health advisor for forward deployed brigade of the 2nd Armor Division, a unit of about 2500 Soldiers. Lead and direct primary care clinic for Brigade, overseeing four physician assistants and about 100 medics. Serve as aviation medical officer (flight surgeon) for air ambulance company and brigade aviation element. Serve as family physician for aviation personnel in Brigade, to include obstetric and inpatient care.

Family Practice Physician
Bremerhaven Army Hospital
Bremerhaven, Germany

OCT 1979 – JUL 1980

Responsibilities: Serve as one of two founding family physicians in small US Army Hospital in Bremerhaven, Germany, providing full range of inpatient and outpatient primary care services, including obstetrics.

Chief Resident, Family Practice Residency
Eisenhower Army Medical Center
Fort Gordon, GA

JUN 1978 – JUN 1979

Civilian Professional Experience:

Program Director, Family Practice Residency Program
University of South Carolina School of Medicine
Palmetto Richland Memorial Hospital
3209 Colonial Drive
Columbia, SC 29203

AUG 1998 – SEPT 2003

Responsibilities: Lead large 30 resident Family Practice residency, develop curriculum and clinical rotations for residents, ensure all educational and institutional resources for program accreditation. Chair South Carolina Area Health Education Committee Family Practice Directors Council. Lead campaign to build new model Family Practice Center

American Board of Family Practice
Test Development Workshop Participant
(Assisted with development of in-training exam question pool)

2002, 2003, 2004

Clinical Associate Professor
University of South Carolina School of Medicine
Columbia, SC

1996 – 1998

Family Physician and Director, Adult Services
Eau Claire Cooperative Health Center
Columbia, SC 29203

AUG 1995 – JUL 1998

Responsibilities: Serve as adult medicine anchor for community pediatric practice to qualify for federal funding as Federally Qualified Health Center "look-alike." Conduct full spectrum adult practice with Physician Assistant, to include inpatient and outpatient management, on staff at three hospitals. Care for largely underserved, uninsured and Medicare/Medicaid population.

Missionary Physician (SIM USA)

Hôpital Evangélique, B.P. 28, Bembéréké, Bénin, West Africa

OCT 1990 – MAY 1995

Responsibilities: Serve as full spectrum general physician at very busy 100 bed mission hospital in Benin, West Africa, one of three physicians. Inpatient and outpatient management, major surgery to include c-sections, hernias, bowel resections, orthopedic and trauma care, burn care and grafting, tropical medicine. Serve as lead for church new plant location, leading preaching mission. Teach nursing students in hospital nursing school. Serve as Director of Surgical Services from 07/1994 - 05/1995 and as Project Manager for Operating Room Completion.

Emergency Room Physician (part-time)

Providence Hospital, Columbia, SC
and Lexington Medical Center, West Columbia, SC

1989

Family Physician (part-time)

Lexington Family Practice
Lexington, SC

SEPT 988 – NOV 1989

Visiting Physician, Hôpital Kibogora, Rwanda

MAY 1984 – JUL 1984,
JAN 1979

Board Certification:

American Board of Family Medicine, Diplomate

1979

Recertification

1985, 1992, 1998, 2004,
2010, 2014

Certificate of Knowledge in Tropical Medicine and Travelers' Health

2000

Honors:

South Carolina Academy of Family Physicians –
Family Physician of the Year

2001

Licensure:

Florida
South Carolina
Georgia

#ME 135942
#13801
#030496

2018
1988
1988

Memberships:

American Academy of Family Physicians
Uniformed Services Academy of Family Physicians
American Society of Tropical Medicine and Hygiene
Christian Medical and Dental Society
Society of Teachers of Family Medicine

Publications:

Lammie JJ, et al. Report of the Department of Defense 1,3 Dimethylamylamine Safety Review Panel, Editor and Safety Panel Lead. 3 June 2013. (Released by Assistant Secretary of Defense for Health Affairs)

Lammie JJ, Kotora JG, Riesberg JC. Combat Triage and Mass Casualty Management, in Front Line Surgery: A Practical Approach, edited by Matthew Martin, Alec Beekley, Springer. 2011.

Probst JC, Moore CG, Baxley EG, Lammie JJ. Rural-urban differences in visits to primary care physicians. Fam Med, 2002;34(8):609-615

McLaughlin SI, Radday J, Michel MC, Addiss DG, Beach MJ, Lammie PJ, Lammie J, Theingans R, LaFontant J. Frequency, severity, and costs of adverse reactions following mass treatment for lymphatic filariasis using diethylcarbamazine and albendazole in Léogane, Haiti. Am. J. Trop. Med. Hyg, 2003, 68:568-573

Lammie JJ. Analyse de 315 biopsies malignes dans un hôpital rural au Bénin. Médecine d'Afrique Noire, 1994, 41 (5): 312-314

Grants:

Residency Training in Primary Care (Title VII) 2000 – 2003

Interests and Activities:

Leadership
Graduate Medical Education
Tropical Medicine
Bible Study and Teaching
Care for the underserved
Yardwork, landscaping, furniture refinishing, grandchildren!

References:

COL John Melton, Hospital Commander,
Womack Army Medical Center (910) 907-6447

COL Johnnie Wright, Chief Medical Officer,
Womack Army Medical Center (910) 907-6498

LTC Wesley Theurer, Family Medicine Residency Program Director,
Womack Army Medical Center (910) 907-8871