PRESSENTATION OF AWARDS

FACULTY HIPPOCRATIC AWARD

Established by the UF College of Medicine class of 1969, the Faculty Hippocratic Award is presented annually by each graduating class to a faculty member who represents the ideal role model and embodies professionalism, humanism and teaching prowess. It is the highest honor bestowed upon a clinical faculty member by the senior class, and this is only the second time a Jacksonville faculty member has been recognized for this prestigious honor.

The University of Florida College of Medicine Class of 2021 presented the Faculty Hippocratic Award to Ana T. Turner, M.D. of the Department of Psychiatry.

PRESSENTATION OF AWARDS

APPLE AWARD WINNER RECIPIENT

DISTINGUISHED ALUMNI AWARD

The inaugural Distinguished Alumni Award is presented to the College of Medicine-Jacksonville residency or fellowship graduate who has achieved extraordinary success in their respective discipline and who has embodied the mission of the College of Medicine-Jacksonville.

The nominee must be a former resident or fellow who completed their training at the College of Medicine–Jacksonville and has not previously received the award. Nominees may be considered in future years with a new nomination form.

The nominee must exhibit accomplishments in one or more of the areas that mirror the mission of the University of Florida College of Medicine–Jacksonville: to heal, to comfort, to educate and to discover through quality health care, elimination of health disparities, medical education, innovation and research.

The Award consists of a plaque. The individual will also have his/her name engraved on a plaque located in the Learning Resource Center.
