

Voting Eligibility Criteria

1. Faculty eligible to participate in the College of Medicine's Constitution vote are those faculty members who, in accordance with University of Florida Faculty Senate Bylaw 21, hold one of the following academic titles in the College of Medicine:
  - Eminent Scholar
  - Graduate Research Professor
  - Distinguished Service Professor
  - Distinguished Professor
  - Professor, Associate Professor, or Assistant Professor
  - Scientist, Associate Scientist, or Assistant Scientist
  - Scholar, Associate Scholar, or Assistant Scholar
  - Senior Associate In, Associate In, or Assistant In
  - Engineer, Associate Engineer, or Assistant Engineer
  - Master Lecturer, Senior Lecturer, or Lecturer
  - Any of the above titles modified only by clinical or research
2. College of Medicine faculty who hold the academic titles of Senior Associate In, Associate In, or Assistant In and whose primary assignment is in administrative support are not eligible to participate in the College of Medicine's Constitution vote.
3. To be eligible to vote, a College of Medicine faculty member must have been employed by the College of Medicine in one of the academic titles referenced above on or before December 4, 2007.