Launchpad Initiative

Overview

The goal of the Launchpad Initiative is to provide a platform for supporting innovative and impactful research projects that:

1. Differentiate UF Health in the competitive healthcare marketplace
2. Generate new intellectual property
3. Lead to future extramural funding with indirect recovery of at least 30%

What sets Launchpad apart?

Accountability

Awardees are held accountable for continued progress on their project. This includes presenting project to exec leadership and committing to regular check-ins.

Rolling Submissions

Submissions are accepted and awarded every month instead of once or twice a year. Innovative and impactful ideas have a platform for quick action.

Funding Progress

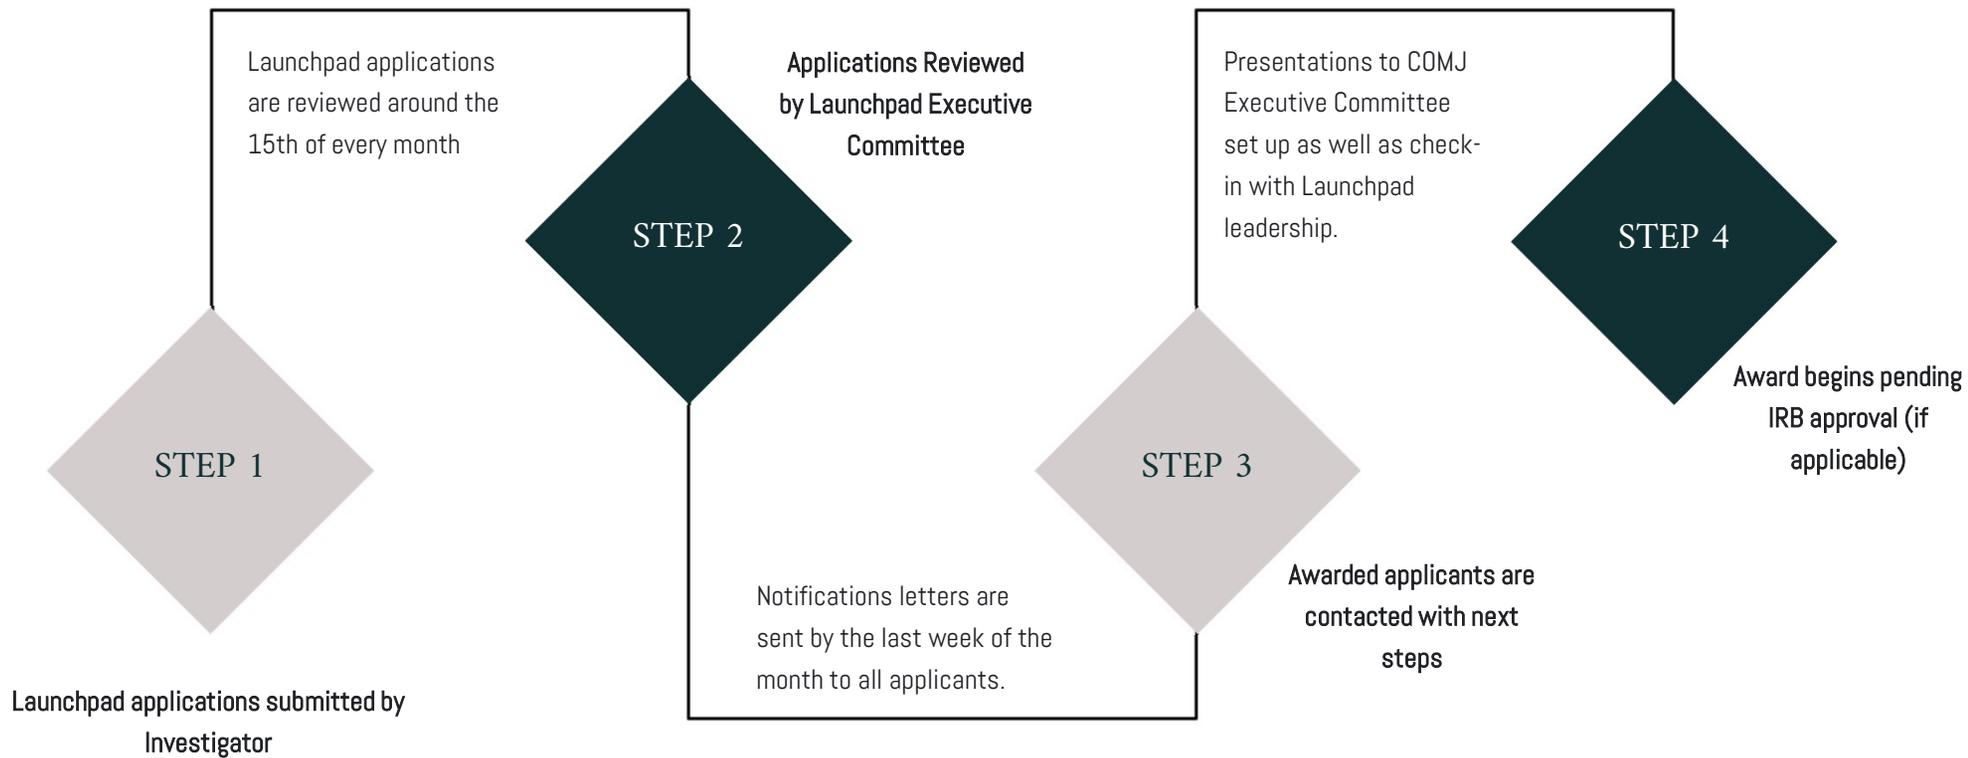

Progress is evaluated multiple times over the award period. If progress isn't satisfactory, funding can be re-allocated to other awardees.

Ongoing Support

Continuous support available from the Office of Research Affairs, Center for Data Solutions, Center for Biospecimens Procurement, etc.
