

UFJPI Education: Anatomy for Coding

This class will:

- Focus on concepts related to the human body's structure and functions
- Define medical terms related to disorders of the body, procedures and treatments
- Introduce common organ/system dysfunctions and related conditions, disorders and diseases
- Review common treatments of the conditions, disorders and diseases

This class requires students to complete reading assignments and homework outside of class time, take weekly quizzes and a final exam.

Prerequisites:

Medical Terminology