

UFJPI Education: Medical Terminology

This class will:

- Focus on building a foundation of medical terms
- Teach participants to become familiar with medical word parts
- Instruct how to pronounce, analyze and define those word parts
- Introduce the body systems
- Define medical abbreviations, medical conditions and surgical terms

This class requires students to complete reading assignments and homework outside of class time, take weekly quizzes and a final exam.

Prerequisites:

Business of Healthcare